

National Strategic

Partner

Fresh Baby is a nutrition education company that provides teaching tools and community outreach products to programs nationwide. Being National Partners with the USDA, we are taking the initiative to assist families and professionals alike in adopting healthy lifestyles by producing and distributing products that make it easy to do so.

I am reaching out to you today to see if I can help you become familiar with our products. Perhaps you may find that some of our products are a good fit for your programs focus.

To view our catalog online click on the following link:
