

Inclusion in the Child Care Setting

Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Americans with Disabilities Act Draft Child Care Licensing Requirements

This training session provides useful information regarding federally and state mandated legislation and practical application for child care providers and staff.

Inclusion means that each child (including children with special needs) is considered individually and his/her needs addressed in a manner to ensure that he/she is provided the supports to develop to their fullest potential along with their typically developing peers.

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

March 18, 2011 - Alma (completed)

April 06, 2011 - Little Rock

April 19, 2011 - West Memphis

April 29, 2011 - Monticello

May 13, 2011 - Batesville

May 20, 2011 - Harrison

May 26, 2011 - Jacksonville

June 09, 2011 - Hope

Presented
through the collaborative efforts of the Department of Human Services (DCCECE & DDS)
and the Arkansas Department of Education

Participants may register through the ASU
Childhood Services TAPP Registry @ http://professionalregistry.astate.edu/train_register/train0a.asp