

FRAUD

Fraud is defined as the deliberate misrepresentation or intentional concealment of information for the purpose of obtaining assistance. (Policy 6565)

If you receive assistance to which you are not entitled as a result of withholding information or knowingly provided false or fraudulent information regarding your circumstances, you must repay the cost of any assistance and may face penalty of criminal prosecution.
(DCO 9495)